THE WEATHER. - Yesterday was quite a cool number, particularly attracted the attention of day, and every way pleasant to outsiders, the large crowd in attendance, and elicited ex-Finer Weather could not be asked for the Fair.

RIVER NEWS .- The Cumberland was falling yes terday, with about four feet on the shoels. The Shylock from Gallatic landing, and the Alida dious affair, for it was well done, showing that from Paducah, are the only arrivals from our last its maker was thorough mistress of the needle; report up to 3 p. m. yesterday. The Monticello left yesterday for a port up the them. river, and the Alida and Cuba for Paducah.

The Ben Coursin was expecting to get off last evening for Cincinnati. The Shylock put up steam. work of a lady sixty-four years of age, which The Memphis will leave this evening for Padu would have done credit to a much younger cah-s good boat, and well officered.

We are indebted to the steamer Sallie West for late St. Louis papers.

CITY DISPENSARY. - This Charity, located at the Medical College, has been in successful op eration since last May. A large number of the upon an ordinary loom, and the wool was clippoor of our city have taken advantage of the relief extended. The "Dispensary" will still rill, Esq. Mrs. John M. Bass' blankets were offer additional inducements to those who may be in want of medicine or advice, the Faculty of the Medical College being the consulting or prescribing physicians.

FINE MILLINERY. - On yesterday we casually stepped into Mrs. A. Crookers' Millinery Establishment on Union street, where we noticed the most tasty assortment of Head and Neck ornaments, and Dressing, we have ever seen in the city. We understood that Mrs. C. had just returned from the Eastern cities, where she had procured all the latest styles of fashionable head-gear. Her establishment appeared to us really neat, beautiful and elegant. Ladies who are in need of trimming in that particular line, would do well to call at Mrs. C's. and get their Mrs. Sarah Harlan, Maury, cer. outward beauty more elegantly embellished.

There was a large crowd of ladies and gentlemen in attendance, and the unanimous expression was that this exhibition of the ingenuity and skill of the artists and mechanics of Tennessee, and of the Winter Good Stock of FALL AND handiwork of our fair country-women, was the most magnificent affair that has ever been witnessed in Nashville.

In variety and superior merit, the exhibition will compare favorably with similar exhibitions anywhere. If the reader wishes to see specimens of the highest skill in the arts and in mechanics, he will find them on exhibition at Odd Fellows' Hall. To this exhibition we proudly point as an evidence of what our artists and mechanics can do. CIRCULAR FOR FALL OF 1855. WE desire to call the attention of our friends and the buyers of Dry Goods throughout the West and Southwest, to our attractions for the fall sales of the present

Our business is now so well organized and arranged, that we are better abte than ever before, to supply the trade with a large and attractive stock. Our Own Importations will supply our Foreigh Department with all the new and desirable fabries from the European markets—selected by one of the house, resident in Europe—and will be particularly adapted to our market.

Our Domestic and Staple Goods Departments will be supplied with all the leading styles of Goods.

It is, we believe, an acknowledged fact that our Stock has always been one of the largest and most attractive in this country, and we also believe that the heat buyers have be-come convinced that our system of SHORT PROFITS AND PROMPT PAY is the most satisfactory.

We invite the attention of all close buyers to our Large and Attractive Stock, but with the distinct understanding that we sell goods only for each, or good notes payable in all cases at Bank.

We shall trum this date forward, adopt a new plan in connection with our layers of the payable with the date of the payable with the payable payable. nection with our Domestic Goods Department. We shall keep a full and complete assortinent of Bleached, Brown and Colored Cotton Goods, which will be sold only for netter Cash. Our object in this is to supply these Goods as keen as they are sold by each houses in the Northern cities. In order to fest this feature of our business, we only ask a comparison of each prices with time prices, and then we will leave the decision to the purchaser.

From the three years' experience since the establishment of our business, we are enabled the more condently to invite attention to our stock and plans for business, believing that we offer indusements second to no House in this country.

THE HIDDLN PATH. A Novel, by MARION HARLAND, of Richmond, Va .- One Elegant 12mo vol. 434 pages. THE extraordinary success of Miss Harland's "Alone"— running through edition after edition, with great , apidity-republished in England with a still larger sale lated into the French and German languages with marked success-is perhaps the best evidence of the originality and rity of her writings. In the language of an eminent itic; "She may henceforth take rank among the most occasiful novelists of the United States." "Those who have read 'Alone'—and those who have not, should—will be interested and gratified to know that a new book by Virginia's gifted authoress, entitled 'The Hidden Path,' is now ready. Beautifully as 'Marion Hariand' has woven the threads of life in other romance and song—she is woven the threads of the in other romance and song—she is a poeters of rare felicity—we are safe in predicting that her new work will surpass all her previous efforts in fine delineation, brilliancy and power, and that Mr. Derby will be called upon to record it on his books as one of the most popular and seccessful of modern literary issues. Since reading "Alone," we shall impatiently await the appearance of "The Hidden Path," "—N. It Ecching Mirror.
